

Curriculum Impact

At Lons Infant School, we will judge our curriculum to have the desired impact if:

- Children read well, enjoy learning and remember much of what has been taught
- Children show curiosity and talk confidently about what they know
- Children are proud of their work, showing excellent progress from their starting points
- Children have sound knowledge of fundamental British Values
- Assessments show excellent progress
- Children move on to Junior school with confidence and resilience